EYFS

The Sign of the Cross

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father,
Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name;
Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

Hail Mary

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee; Blessed art thou amongst women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.
Amen.

Grace Before Meals

Bless us oh Lord,
bless the food we eat,
bless those who cook it,
those who serve it and give food to the hungry
Amen.

Grace After Meals

Thank you for the world so sweet,
Thank you for the food we eat,
Thank you for the birds that sing,
Thank you God for everything.
Amen.

KS1

Glory Be

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Night Prayer

God our Father, we've come to say, thank you for your love today. Thank you for my family and all the friends you give to me. Guard me in the dark of night and in the morning send your light. Amen.

Morning Prayer

Oh my God you love me you're with me night and day. I want to love you always in all I do and say. I'll try to please you Father, bless me through the day. Amen.

Eternal Rest

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the rest in peace. Amen

Penitential Rite

I confess to almighty God, and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned through my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done, and in what I have failed to do; through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sister, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Lower KS2

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God,
the Father almighty Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;

he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

An Act of Contrition

O my God, because you are so good, I am very sorry that I have sinned against you, and with the help of your grace I will not sin again.

Angel of God

Angel of God,
my guardian dear,
to whom God's love commits me
here,
ever this day be at my side, to light and guard, to rule and guide.
Amen.

Come, Holy Spirit

V. Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful.
R. And kindle in them the fire of your love.
V. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created.
R. And you will renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray
O God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit, did instruct the hearts of your faithful, grant that by that same Holy Spirit, we may be truly wise, and ever rejoice in your consolation, Through Christ our Lord.
Amen

The Prayer of St Richard of Chichester

Thanks be to you, my Lord Jesus Christ, for all the benefits which you have given me, for all the pains and insults which you have borne for me.

O most merciful Redeemer, friend and brother, may I know you more clearly,
love you more dearly,
and follow you more nearly,
day by day.
Amen.

Upper KS2

The Rosary

For each mystery or decade,
one Our Father, ten Hail Marys and the Glory be is recited.

The Magnificat

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour,
for he has looked upon his handmaid in her lowliness;
for behold, from this day forward, all generations will call me blessed.

For the Almighty has done great things for me,
and holy is his name.
His mercy is from age to age for those who fear him.

He has made known the strength of his arm,
and has scattered the proud in their conceit of heart.
He has cast down the mighty from their thrones and has exalted those who are lowly.
He has filled the hungry with good things, and has sent the rich away empty.

He has helped his servant Israel, mindful of his mercy,
even as he promised to our fathers,
to Abraham and his descendants for ever.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now,
and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen.

Act of Faith

My God, I believe in you and all that your Church teaches,
because you have said it,
and your word is true.

Act of Hope

My God, I hope in you,
for grace and for glory,
because of your promises,
your mercy and your power.

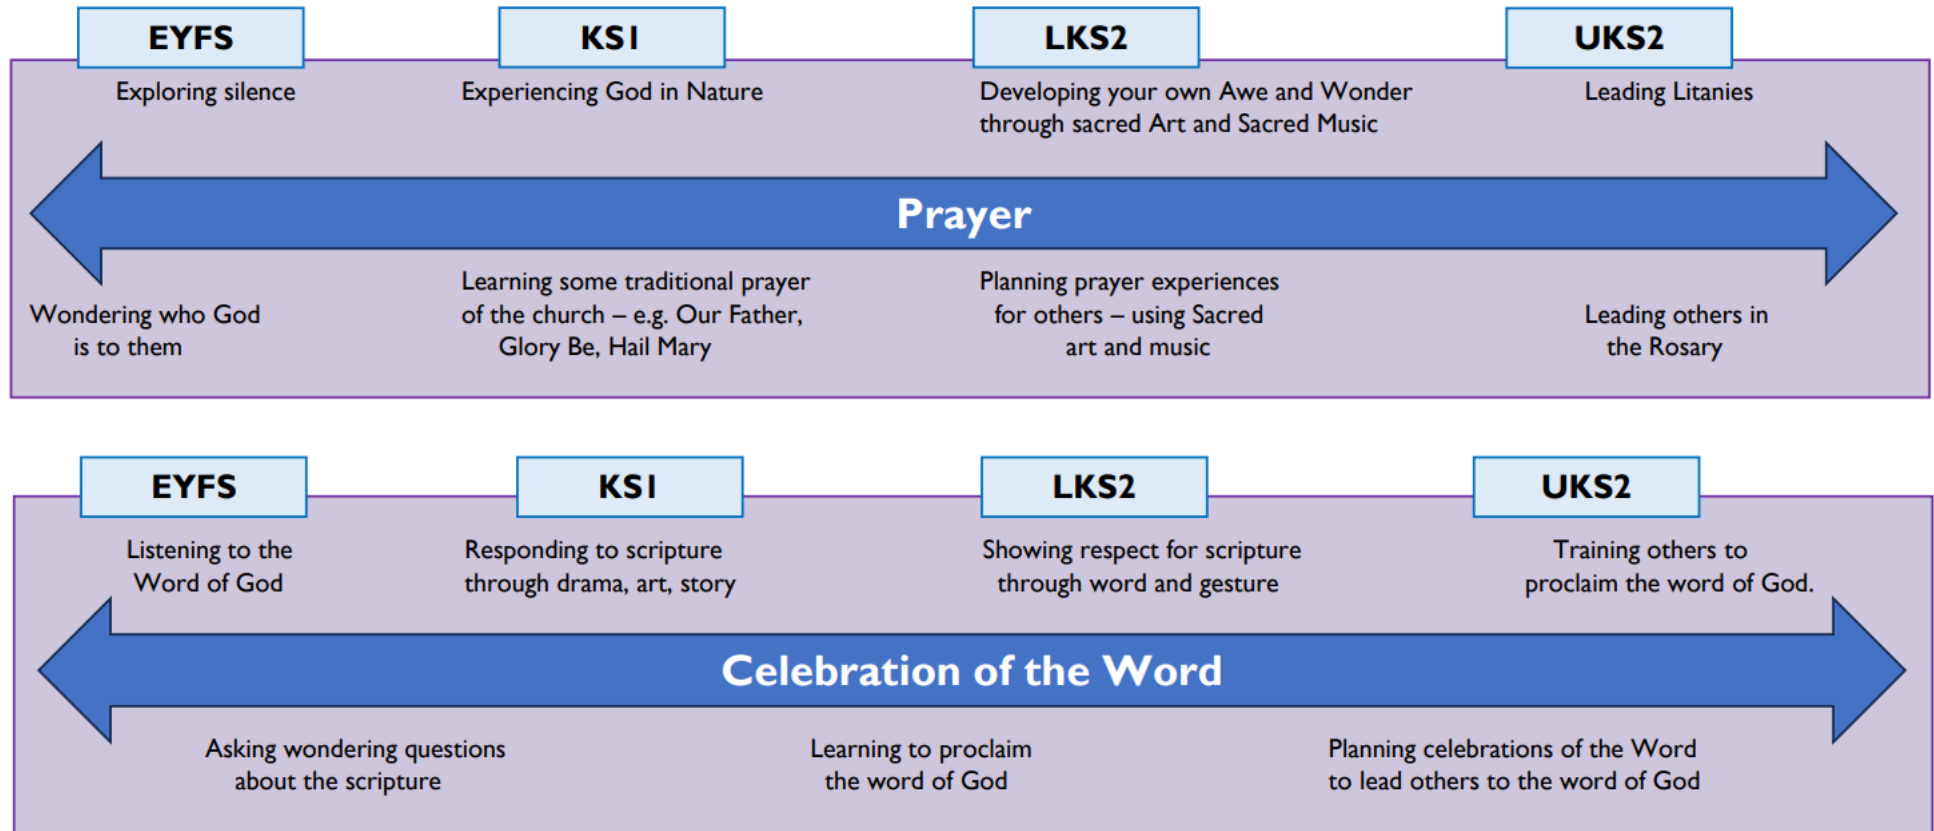

Act of Love

My God, because you are so good,
I love you with all my heart,
and for your sake,
I love your neighbour as myself.

Model and explain the colour of the liturgical cloth Model and explain any artwork or music chosen to aid their understanding of the scripture Light a candle and explain how this reminds us of Christ's presence Invite the children to share how these objects help them to think about the scripture words. Think about using different spaces to normal learning input e.g. facing a different way to aid understanding that this is a different way of listening. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> All scripture should be read directly from the Bible. The Bible should have a special place in the EYFS classroom Children could solemnly collect and bring the Bible to be read as part of the liturgy. Scripture should be read and shared by the adult – modelling reverence and showing the special nature of the words. Choose and read scripture from a Catholic children's Bible – possibly linked to Sunday Gospel. Possibly choose to read just one age-appropriate part of the Gospel to read and reflect on with the children. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> After sharing the scripture- or key words or lines from the scripture – invite the children to wonder about it. Model wondering questions to engage the children in understanding that this is the word of God – speaking directly to them this day. What does it make them think about? How does it make them feel? Invite children to pose wondering questions about what they have heard. Share artwork or music to aid reflection and thinking time Model and encourage times of silence to wonder and think – this could be aided 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> When reading from the scripture, ensure you open and close the reading with the appropriate introductions and responses. Expect, model and reinforce silence and listening postures when the hearing scripture words. Invite the children to share which postures help them to listen and think about the words – e.g. they may want to stand or face a certain way. Invite feedback from them – “What helped me to listen and wonder today?” 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Keep the Bible open and displayed in the classroom to invite further thinking. Pose a wondering question linked to the scripture for them to think about across the week Have some way of displaying and returning to this across the week – e.g. wondering woodpecker posing a question Invite children to respond to the scripture across continuous provision e.g. drawing, small world etc.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Consider using Godly-play (or similar) to help the children to understand the scripture. 	by the presence of a character –e.g. wondering woodpecker – “We need to be silent when he is wondering – or he might be scared away”
